PRESIDENTS MESSAGE—Janet Mitchell

Happy New Years!

First off I want to thank Carol and Joanne and all the hostess' of the tables for the wonderful Christmas Party. You all did an awesome job. It's not too early to think about hosting a table (shop those after Christmas sales) and Catherine Schinhofen has agreed to chair the Christmas party committee but she needs help, please get involved and offer to help. Also I want to thank the chapter for the gift card it will come in handy!

We have an exciting year coming up and I am honored to still be your president and help with all the exciting things the board is doing. Jeanneta Cimo is our new Quail Eggs chairman and wants to vamp up the program and has great things planned, Judy Mountjoy has taken over Hospitality and Cathy Immel has agreed to do Ways and Means so please sign up to donate a basket or a featured artist piece when she asks.

Carol Whitton and Diana VanRiel are working on Programs this year and this month is our Mystery Project –It's a surprise and I can tell you that the teacher is great and everyone loves taking from her so be sure and contact Diana or Carol for your spot. The project is free for those that renewed their membership by the end of Nov but you still need to RSVP so there are enough projects.

Make this the year of volunteering. This chapter cannot run without you. We have committee positions open and even if you don't want to chair a position you can always help. We need helpers for Charity, Christmas Party, Holiday Raffle and Raffle for the Christmas Party. You can never have too many helpers.

See you at the January meeting

Mystery

The project this month is being taught by Sue Clark, our own member. It is a Mystery class. The class will be free if you renewed your dues by Dec 2016, if you did not renew the cost will be $10.00

CHARITY 2017

Rosanne Scholey

Ladies,

While the chapter is looking for a permanent Charity Chairperson I will collect toiletries, of any kind, mittens, hats, scarfs and small blankets for the Victor Valley Rescue Mission. The 99 Cent Store or Dollar Tree are a great source for some of these items. It is cold out there and some warm articles of clothing, mittens, scarfs, hats could come in handy. So, if your hands are looking for something to do, now that you have finished all your Christmas projects, how about whipping up a hat or scarf. If you prefer to donate money, I will be happy to shop for you. This is a most worthwhile organization who serves our local community.

Thank you in advance for your generous donations.

Thanks, Rosanne

Quail Eggs:

Hello everyone...

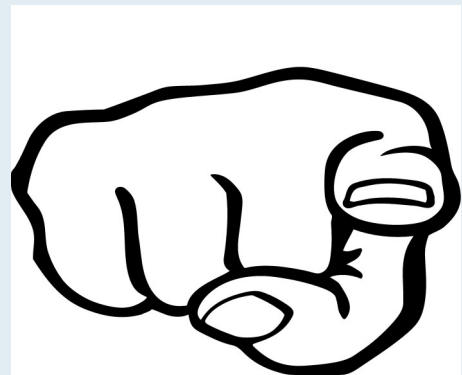

Quail eggs represent a part of our chapter that rewards our members for volunteering and contributing to make our chapter successful. I want to make some changes to our current program to bring some fun and excitement and to encourage everyone to participate. The quail egg cash you receive will be based on your contributions and will be more valuable than before. I want everyone to Dust off your suitcases full of quail egg cash and bring them to the meetings to participate in the new program. Im going to have great prizes and change it up every month. I'm looking for more ideas to make it a success , I welcome your ideas and feedback.

Thanks, Jeannetta

C/O Janet Mitchell....Go Janet!

To All My Desert Quail Tolers Friends,

It saddens my heart to bid you a farewell from DQT. I will miss every one of you for each of you have touched my heart as a sisterhood. Dana and I are only moving a half mile from where we live now, yet my duties for the move and my other Tuesday obligations has me making a choice. Letting go of DQT is very sad, yet you may see me in town, on Facebook, and I will definitely be at the annual boutique.

Thank you for all the love, encouragement, and kindly support you've shown toward myself and Dana. God has been filling my life with many blessings and DQT was one. Hugs, Smiles, and warm wishes to the entire club!

DeDe

Sincerely, DeDe Deschenes (Mary Dorothy Deschenes)
