Chapter #99204 Established 1991

Happy Fall! Hopefully we will be saying good-bye to this hot weather soon. I, for one, am ready to welcome in some cooler temperatures.

Many thanks to Judy Coates for a wonderful evening of painting during our September 25th chapter meeting. We are so fortunate to have such creative designers and teachers in our area who are willing to share their talents and skills. Judy did not disappoint us. She is always so informative – sharing special techniques and products to enhance our projects. I, for one, am sad to be saying good-bye to her owl series yet look forward to seeing the new designs she has in store for us. Our October 23rd meeting will feature a “spooky” theme from our project to our food! Beth Murena will teach a Halloween cup featuring pumpkins, bats, a black cat and the man in the moon. It is such a fun design that is sure to be a hit with those who paint. Please bring your favorite SPOOKY FOOD for our potluck. As an added incentive to participate, everyone who brings a “spooky food dish” will receive a ticket for a chance to win a special raffle prize.

The next few months will be busy ones. I know many of you are spending every free moment painting items for our upcoming boutique. I am looking forward to seeing the many beautiful items that will be available for sale. Remember, we ask that each of our members contribute to Granny’s Pantry. These are food items (cookies, breads, chocolate covered pretzels, etc) that we sale. Rosanne Scholey has preprinted tags you may pick up at our next meeting. Tags for Granny’s Pantry must be done on yellow paper. Also, don’t forget to turn your money and tickets into Marilyn Hinman for the Holiday Raffle. We have such beautiful items to raffle off this year. Great job Marilyn and committee (Judy Mountjoy and Donna Nelson). I would be remiss if I didn’t extend thanks to Becky Bolding and Jeannetta Cimo for their behind the scenes work in preparation for our Holiday Boutique weekend, October 26-27.

Before we know it, it will be time for us to celebrate at our annual Christmas Party, December 4th. Tickets are now on sale for members as well as their guests. I hope that you will elect to participate in our ornament exchange. It’s something new and different that the committee has brought to us this year. We have the opportunity to paint a design exclusively for the chapter member whose name you draw. I think it will make this activity even more meaningful. Table hostesses are also busy creating those beautiful tables we have each year.

Last, don’t forget that Janet Mitchell is collecting the 2019 membership dues. We, again, are only charging $10 for our dues. In order to join DQT, however, you must also join the Society of Decorative Painters. This year, SDP has made it easier to notify our chapter of your paid dues. You may elect to have them send a copy of your receipt directly to Janet. Her email address is pin_queen23@hotmail.com. Of course, you may also give her a copy of your receipt in person.

That’s all I have for now. Looking forward to seeing each of you at our October meeting!

Best regards,

Carol

I have been painting since 1990, I have taken Classes from several “Big” Brushes and our wonderful local teachers. I feel if you learn one thing from a teacher it helps to strengthen you painting ability.

Janet and Heidi encouraged me to teach, which is something I would probably never do without their encouragement.

At this month's Desert Quail membership meeting, Judy Coates taught the most adorable Christmas Owl. During the class, she mentioned her technique for "Snowman Building". Since many of us had not heard or seen her method, I decided to include it as this month's Education article. Hope you enjoy it and find it useful as it's that time to paint snowmen.

Palette – Decoart Americana: Bleached Sand, Lamp Black, Payne's Gray, Snow White, Tuscan Red and Tangelo Orange

"I paint all my Snowmen the same way. I use a Lowe Cornell ½" Crescent Brush and a Liner Brush. Hold the Crescent Brush at an angle so that you only are loading one side with Bleached Sand—you will be dry brushing so you need NO WATER and very little paint. After loading the brush, tap or gently wipe off onto a paper towel to pull a little of the extra paint off the brush.

Hold your brush at an angle and with a light touch begin applying paint to the surface either in a circular motion or little "x"s. Start with a very light touch in the brightest areas (these are areas that are not shaded). As you work, you can give more pressure as needed. Keep dry brushing towards the shadow areas. Even if you think you are running out of color—you will be leaving a light powdery color and that is what you want as you head towards the shaded areas.

When your brush runs out of color, reload the same way and again start back in the brightest area working towards the shaded area. Each time you do this, your color will become brighter in each area. Repeat this as needed until you are happy with the color. Remember this is snow so you want it to look fluffy! It usually takes 3 or 4 coats to get the color where you want it. When doing this, be sure to let the first coat dry before continuing or your color will lift. You could also add a little stippling as you proceed. Next dry brush or stipple on a little Snow White for a highlight.

If you get the paint too heavy in the shadow areas, side load a ¾" flat (very lightly) in Payne's Gray (or if you have used a different blue on your background, you can use that color) and reinforce your shades. You don't want this reinforcement to get too heavy—it still needs to look fluffy.

Snowman Faces: All faces are done the same with the exception of the nose shape or eye shapes.

Cheeks: Drybrush with Tuscan Red. Remember to start with light pressure—proceed until you get the color you want.

Eyes: Very simple!! Use your liner—load into thinned Black. Starting on the tip of your brush, paint short little strokes to form somewhat of a triangle or you may just wish to dip dot the eyes Black.

POT LUCK

Bring your Ghoulish Dish to share with all, for a Spooky Halloween Meal.

What are you making???

Do you know what “Granny’s Pantry “is???

What is “Granny’s Pantry”? It is our annual bake sale at the Holiday Boutique. It is a general fundraiser and all members, PLEASE bring something. Would love to make just few dollars more than last year. Anything you make is great, Cakes, Cookies, pies, brownies,, jelly or jams, candy fudge, teas, popcorn balls– well you get the idea. Just wrap it nicely and PLEASE mark what it is and if it has NUTS. Please no frosted cupcakes or brownies in baggies, the frosting melts and we are not able to sell them.

We will be happy to price it, as we now use Yellow Tags for food items. You can bring it before or during the boutique or make arrangements with Jennetta, Rosanne or myself to get it. This year you can even bring it to the meeting on Oct. 23, as long as it’s not perishable. You can bring it to the boutique & see what we do and shop for the holidays and maybe have a table yourself next year! The boutique is Fri. & Sat., Oct. 26/27, 9-3 at the Community Church at Jess Ranch on Apple Valley Rd. behind Target.

The funds that we make go right back into the club for teacher fees and rent, supplies and all the things that make our club run. So don’t forget and you get Quail Eggs for your donations. THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING YOUR CLUB.

Any question call Jennetta @760-221-0051 or Becky @760-247-2285

Thanks so much for your help and supporting the club.

YELLOW TAGS ON FOOD FOR NON-TAXABLE. We will have them at the boutique with prices already on them. THANKS

When you donate your goodies, PLEASE note if there are NUTS in the items also we will be supplying YELLOW TAGs for all Granny Pantry items. Please see Jeanetta or Becky.

BOUTIQUE NEWS

If there is anyone that can lend a helping hand, Today's Woman Foundation will be BASECOATING cancer boxes on Wednesday Oct 10, 2019. They are down to the last 20 boxes that we have painted for them. The meeting will be held at the Sunview Plaza 13010 Hesperia Road Ste 100 Victorville (Nisqually Road and Hesperia Road) from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Bring your sponge brushes or a small roller painting brush. Paint will be provided. I know this is a busy time for all painting for the boutique and I know there is a class at Kreative Klutter so anyone else that can even spare 1 hour that evening, would be appreciated. Thanks to all of you that painted boxes this year-your efforts and creativity were so appreciated. (Please note-we are only basecoating this evening) If anyone is still holding holding on to boxes please turn them in to me as we will basecoat them and take them to the workshop on November 3.

Thank you all for making The Bundles of Hope a success.

Diana Van Riel

Save the Date: The Today's Women Foundation will be hosting a Bundle of Hope Workshop tentatively scheduled for Saturday, November 3, 2018, from 8:30 am to Noon. The Workshop will be held at Sunview Plaza, Choice Medical Group 13010 Hesperia Road, Suite 100, Victorville. You will have an opportunity to make something special for a cancer patient. You can paint gift boxes, (using your Artistic Skills), sew or stuff determination dolls, or make bracelets.

Material will be provided, but you may want to bring a few brushes.

Contact Janet Mitchell 760-900-9343 or Diana Van Riel 760-646-2285 if you wish to participate in this great event.
