Chapter #99204 Established 1991

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE—Carol Whitton

Thank you to Jeanetta Cimo for helping our DQT members welcome in the Spring season by teaching her creative watermelon salt and pepper shakers at our June 26th meeting. Many of you also elected to take her class featuring the companion watermelon table runner, placemats, and banner. What a festive set for upcoming summer BBQ's and swim parties! I might add that this past week I had to go "searching" throughout the Victor Valley for roc lon for another project I'm working on. It seemed that many of our vendors were sold out due to increased "sales" on the product. Hmm, I wonder why?!? We love your designs, Jeanetta, and are so fortunate you are willing to share them with us. Our meeting for the month of July will feature Heidi Allison teaching the Scarecrow and Frankenstein candy dishes. These come from designs by Jamie Mills-Price. Heidi is such a talented painter who teaches in an informative, fun way. Don't forget to RSVP by July 16th if you would like to paint this project.

Congratulations to our Chapter for receiving the Chapter Achievement Award and patch from the Society of Decorative Painters. We qualified to receive this award by completing the eight mandatory requirements: 1) verifying that all members are current members of SDP, 2) filing and providing proof IRS Form 990-N was submitted, 3) completing the Chapter form listing officers and chairpersons together with their current information as well as a copy of our total gross receipts anticipated for the coming year, 4) paying the Chapter liability insurance premium and Chapter service fee by the SDP due date, 5) submitting a current roster of members, 6) sending SDP a copy of any Bylaw or Standing Rule revisions, if any, 7) showing that a minimum of four business meetings were conducted throughout the year, and 8) informing SDP of the Chapter President's email address. In addition, we also provide information about our charity work, Tole Painting Month activities, newsletters, how we promote decorative painting in our community, participation in the San Bernardino County Fair, keeping a scrapbook (Facebook page), etc. As you can see, there are many facets to our Chapter in addition to the monthly meetings. Thank you, each and every one of you, for your contributions to our Chapter so that we have a place to paint, learn, and laugh with our friends who share our passion for this craft.

My, this year has flown by quickly. The Summer Seminar with Sandi Strecker is just seven weeks away – August 24-25, 2018! I can hardly wait to see what Janet and Beth have in store for us during the weekend! We will also begin selling our new cookbooks at the seminar. If you want to make certain to get a copy for yourself, contact Cathy to reserve one. They are $15 each. These would make great gifts for your family and friends.

Hope to see you at our meeting on July 24th. Happy painting until then!

Carol

July Project with Heidi Allison
(Artist: Jamie Mills Price)

Sammy Scarecrow & Frankie Frankenstein candy dish.

Heidi began painting when she was a young mom with little ones, several years ago, and loved the country look décor, but was so broke and thought it would be better to learn how to do it herself. What a joke that was! We all know how much we invest in our hobby and she is pretty positive she didn't save that much money. LOL!! Anyway, she absolutely loves to paint and even more she loves to teach. It is very rewarding to her , to share her passion of art with others.

Education Editor : Nancy Schatz

It's time to start thinking about painting those ornaments and goodies for the upcoming Holiday Boutique. Most of the ornaments are for Christmas with the most popular color used being RED and we all know how hard it is to get red to cover and sometimes it requires multiple coats. Try putting a coat of celery green or mustard seed on your project first.... Before the red. Then when dry add the color or red desired and you should not need quite as many coats to cover.

Also remember to try out products such as Snowtex, Opal Dust, or good old glitter on your holiday projects... it will give a sparkle to the piece and cover up those little mishaps easily and with pizzaz! Just remember to apply these products AFTER varnishing your piece. If you put them on before, the varnish can dull the finish of the glitter or sparkle and you will not be as happy with the end result.

Now get busy

And start painting those pieces to sell— you will be so happy with the money you can make.

Thank you all for supporting our DQT website.

We have just hit 1,200 views. That's phenomenal! Glad to see that many of you are finding this tool useful. We have a number of new additions to the website. In the "Gallery", pictures have been added for 1) the San Bernardino County Fair and 2) our DQT Summer Seminar with Laurie Speltz, Day 1 and Day 2. I hope you'll take the time to view these. Also, pictures of the projects scheduled for August 2017, September 2017, October 2017, and November 2017 are now posted under "General Meetings". Don't forget to sign-up at the meeting or call Diana Van Riel to RSVP before the deadline. You won't want to miss out on these fantastic projects.

WHAT ARE YOU MAKING

DO YOU KNOW WHAT “GRANNY’S PANTRY” IS?

What is “GRANNY’S PANTRY”? It is our annual bake sale at the Holiday Boutique. It is a general fund raiser and all members, PLEASE, bring something. Would love to make just a few dollars more than last year. Anything you make is great. Cakes, cookies, pies, brownies, jelly or jam, candy, fudge, teas, popcorn balls-well, you get the idea. Just wrap it nicely and PLEASE, mark what it is and if it has NUTS. Please no frosted cupcakes or brownies in baggies, the frosting melts and we are not able to sell them. We will be happy to price it, as we now use yellow tags for food items. You can bring it before or during the boutique or make arrangements with Jennetta, Rosanne, or myself to get it. This year you can even bring it to the meeting on Oct 23th, as long as it’s not perishable. You can bring it to the boutique and see what we do and shop for the holidays and maybe have a table yourself next year! The boutique is Fri. and Sat., Oct. 26 and 27, 9-3 at The Community Church at Jess Ranch on Apple Valley Rd., behind the Target.

The funds that we make go right back into the club for teacher fees and rent, supplies and all the things that make our club run. So, don’t forget and you get Quail Eggs for your donations. THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING YOUR CLUB.

Any questions call Jennetta at 760-221-0051 or Becky at 760-247-2285.

Thank so much for your help and supporting the club.

DESERT QUAIL TOLERS.....July 2018

Hello DQT Ladies,

Thank you so very much for your monthly donations of clothing, personal hygiene products, and money for the Victor Valley Rescue Mission! Here is a website link to VVRM's "Donate Food/Hygiene Products" FAQ page that will provide answers to many common questions. <https://www.erescuemission.org/giving/donate-food-and-hygiene-products/>

For the remainder of 2018, I will continue to collect and deliver much needed hygiene & clothing donations to VVRM, however, I've just recently learned of another impressive and worthy organization headquartered right here in the High Desert! This organization is called, Today's Woman Foundation. In fact, at a recent DQT Board of Directors meeting, our very own Janet Mitchell introduced a special guest, Margaret Smith, the Executive Director. She spoke about the TWF mission and how DQT could help. As mentioned in the DQT April 2018 newsletter, several DQT members participated in a community volunteer event workshop called "Bundles of Hope." Volunteers created beautiful gifts which were placed into cardboard gift boxes tole painted by DQT! These gifts were destined for local women recently diagnosed with cancer. Our painted boxes were gladly accepted and truly appreciated! If you would like to paint a gift box, please contact Diana Van Riel. To learn more about TWF origins, founders, future events, great works and successes, here is their website address: <http://todayswomanfoundation.org/>

Monetary donations I collect at future DQT chapter meetings for the remainder of 2018 will be forwarded to Today's Woman Foundation and I thank you in advance for your kindness and generosity.

Sincerely,

Catherine "Tiny Brush" Schinhofen
DQT Charity Chairman
