PRESIDENTS MESSAGE—Janet Mitchell

Happy Fall 'Yall! It's time to turn our clocks back and 'fall' into the Fall season which is my utmost favorite season. The weather gets chilly, the days are shorter, dinners consist of homemade soups and stews and I get to wear bulky sweaters and pants (well mainly to hide the extra hibernation weight I put on) and it will soon be time to turn on KOST Radio for 24/7 Christmas carols and of course the Hallmark Channel for all the Christmas movies! It's a time to reflect on the past year and the many blessings we have —our family, our home, our friends, our country and God. As I write this last president's letter for the newsletter I am so blessed to be able to count you the members as my friends and my inspiration for my craft. I have enjoyed being your president for the last few years and thank you for your support and help and please help out next year's president with volunteering to take a committee or help do a job that is needed.

I want to thank all the members for stepping up the past year(s) to take a position, help on a committee and help with set up and clean-up for our events. Your willingness to help keeps our chapter moving forward and being the successful chapter it is, and my job would not have been so easy without all your help.

November 28th is our last general meeting of the year and we will be voting on a new slate of officers and presenting revised Bylaws/Standing rules for the members to vote on.

REMEMBER THE NOVEMBER MTG IS THE TUESDAY AFTER THANKSGIVING!

NOVEMBER PROJECT GINGER HOUSE NAPKIN HOLDER Tuesday, November 28, 2017
RSVP No later than Monday, November 20, 2017 Desert Quail Tolerers' have yet another talented painter and designer – Jeannetta Cimo - who will share her expertise this coming month. She started painting plaster crafts about 35 years ago then turned to tole painting during the past five years. It was during this time that Jeannetta joined DQT. She likes to paint with acrylics and whatever else that “looks like fun.” Recognizing Jeannetta’s painting talent, others encouraged her to begin teaching. Her resume now includes classes taught at Kreative Klutter, Palms to Pines chapter, Palm Springs chapter, and the Gypsy Tolerers’ Annual Sleepover. Jeannetta tells us that she considers fingernails to be the most unusual surface she’s painted on. And... something most of us did not know about her – Jeannetta was a cosmetologist in the 1980’s!

Sign ups for this project will be accepted through November 20, 2017. My Hands Hurt

This is not about painting but it is about painters. We often talk among ourselves about how our hands feel after we have been in workshops or classes. It may be the arthritis creeping in.

While reading a magazine from Our Healthy Circles.com I came across these ideas that might help on those days.

We know that aches and pains from arthritis eases with regular exercise. Daily arthritic pains may make your daily tasks difficult. Along with walking or a gym workout try these tips.

Bring your own-Carry a small pair of scissors to handle tearing jobs, such as opening ketchup packets.

Get a Grip-Add a key ring to zippers to give hands better leverage to pull up and down.

Go for Paper-Tote your groceries home in paper bags. Carrying the load on your forearms eases the hand pain of gripping plastic grocery bag handles.

Just add rubbers-Rubber bands around a bottle or jar lids improve your grip.

See out Special Tools-Arthritis friendly products help solve everyday problems. A seatbelt extender, for examples, adds an easy-to-grasp rubber loop to limit pain as you reach for your retracting seatbelt.

Now this last suggestion was not in the magazine but my artisy neighbor said it was an idea that really works.

“Soak a bunch of raisins in vodka and every morning eat 10”.

Now that sounds interesting but I’m not sure if really works. Have you ever tried this?

BOUTIQUE NEWS

THANK YOU, THANK YOU for such an amazing job all of you did. We had a great boutique this year and each of you who had a table had wonderful things for sale. What a beautiful assortment of painted items we had. Thank you to the “Welcome” ladies, the raffle, the demonstrators and all who helped with check-out and our hard working “floor walkers”. Diana Van Riel did an amazing job on “Grannies Pantry”. It takes all of us to pull this off each year and I want to “Thank” my co-chairman, Rosanne and Jeannetta for all their help.

Thank you to all who stayed and helped clean up. You made my job easier and a personal “THANK YOU” to each of you.

NEWS FOR NEXT YEAR

Thank you, Jeannetta for taking over the boutique for next year and I will be the co-chairman. Thank you, Thank you!!

Hope you all will join us next year, it takes a large part of our membership to keep this going, so come join us.

Start painting now, just try to paint two of whatever you paint and before long you have lots to sell and maybe make a little extra money next fall. Hope you will join us. Have a wonderful holiday season. And THANK YOU. THANK YOU. Becky, Rosanne, and Jeannetta.

Recipes Needed

Everyone knows tole painters are great cooks and we want to share that with others by putting together a cookbook. Please send/bring your favorite recipes to Cathy Immel to be included in DQTs first cookbook. These do not have to be original (i.e. ones you created) recipes, just recipes that you, your family, your friends love. You can even add a note about why this is a special recipe. We are looking for all types of recipes –main course, side dishes, salads, appetizers, desserts.

Thank you for helping
