PRESIDENTS MESSAGE—Carol Whitton

Happy New Year to you all! We, as Desert Quail Tolerers, had a fabulous 2017. Many thanks are in order to Janet Mitchell for her service as our President during the past three years. She will be a tough act to follow! Thank you, also, to our awesome teachers during this past year – Diana Tyner, Tami Carmody, Barbara Underwood, Judy Coates, Beth Murena, Judy Craik, Jane Haggard, Janet Mitchell, Heidi Allison, and Jeannetta Cimo. We are so appreciative of your willingness to share your expertise and talents. Each of you brought something new to the table allowing us to take home new skills and techniques. What about our Holiday Boutique this year? Both Becky Bolding and Rosanne Scholey outdid themselves so that we had one of the most successful events ever. To close out our year, the Christmas Party was one of the best I've been to yet. Compliments are extended to Catherine Schinhofen for organizing such a fun and festive event.

As you can see, our Chapter would not exist without the wonderful members who volunteer their time and resources to make our meetings and events happen. Whether it be in the form of donating items for raffles, bringing food for our potlucks, seminars, or other events, coming early to help set up or staying late to help clean up, serving as an officer or committee chairperson, everyone is needed to keep our chapter moving forward. We still have a few committee chairperson positions available. If you are currently not holding a position, won't you consider volunteering for one of the open positions? These include 1) Christmas Party, 2) Holiday Raffle, 3) October Painting Month, and 4) Special Raffles. Should you be interested in any of these positions, which you could always share with another member, or have questions, please give me a call (760-954-6533) or email (whit4kids@aol.com) me. It is always refreshing to have new people volunteer for positions on our board. They bring new ideas and enthusiasm to the group. With that being said, I'd like to welcome our new Board members Nancy Schatz (Education), Nancy Justice (Welcome) and Kelly Costello (Quail Eggs).

Here's to a great 2018! I'm looking forward to seeing each of you at our January 23rd meeting.

Best regards,

Carol

Membership

I am getting ready to put together the DQT Membership Book and you do not want to be left out. If you have not paid your membership dues (only $10 for 2018) please remit to me by January 13, 2018. If you think you paid and you received an email saying you didn't let us know and we will research it (it's a busy time of year and I make mistakes). Also if you are not going to renew please let me know also.

If you have a business and would like to have your business card in the membership book please send me your business card and a check for $10 by Jan 13, 2018 to be included in this year's book, anyone can advertise so if you have a friend or family member that want's to advertise send me the info also.

Thank You and Happy New Year's

Education Editor : Nancy Schatz

As the New Year 2018 arrives so does our desire for new beginnings and to make all of those New Year's resolutions...including getting more sleep, eating less or better foods, and above all else...getting organized—even in our craft room!

I was looking at Chris Haughey's website and she gave some great suggestions for organizing and working more efficiently so I thought I would start off my tenure as the education guru (hahaha) by sharing some of her ideas:

Clear and clean your work space. Before you start even the smallest project, make sure your workspace is free of clutter and dust. As Chris says..."making sure your area is spotless and tidy not only makes working on projects easier, creativity will also flow much better!

Once you are all clean, get out whatever supplies needed for the next project you are about to begin.

Now organize your tools, paints and brushes within easy reach. She has suggestions for how to organize, do whatever works best for you—but do some type of organization so you no longer have to stop, search and reach across the room to find something you need at a critical moment. Most importantly regardless of the manner in which you organize your tools, be sure to return them when you are done using them each time you paint...that's the tough part!

Last, but not least...when you are done with a project—put everything away and again clean-up your work space so you are prepared to begin the next project you are anxious to start with the very clear and clean work space you just spent so much time organizing.

Finally...I want to wish everyone a very Happy New Year and am so looking forward to sharing lots of fun times together this year.
